Genoua, June 1. N. S. The Advices from Provence say, the Count d'Estrees is sailed with 9 Men of War from Toulon, and 25 Galleys from Marseilles, with a great many Vessels laden with Ammunition and Provisions, to be employed in the Siege of Barcelona.

Leghorne, June 5. Prince Gaston of Tuscany is gone for Germany, to Marry with the Princess of Saxe-Lawenburg. 'Tis said, that a Defensive Alliance is concluded between the Princes of Italy and the State of Milan, for their Common Security.

Venice, June 7. A great many Vessels laden with all sorts of Stores for the Venetian Fleet and Army in the Levant, lie ready to sail, under the Convoy of several Men of War, staying only for a fair Wind. The last Letters we have from Napoli di Romania, are dated in the beginning of May; The Captain-General had then sent out a Squadron of light Ships to cruise in the Archipelago; and intended to go to Sea with the whole Fleet in a fortnight or 3 weeks; He had received advice, that the Turks were drawing their Troops together near the Frontiers of the Morea, but their number was so inconsiderable that they could have no other design than to be on the defensive. The Letters from Turkey by the way of Ragusa say, the Grand Signior was on his departure from Adrianople, and that the Vizier would go before to assemble the Forces near Belgrade; but 'twill be the end of June before they begin the Campagne; The War with the Moscovites does certainly give the Turks a great Diversion, having obliged them to send a Body of their best Troops that way; and the Troubles continuing in Asia, as well by the Revolt of the Arabs, as by the Robbers appearing in stronger Parties than usually, makes it necessary to keep a good Force in those parts, which would otherwise be sent to Hungary.

Vienna, June 8. We conclude the Fortress of Bihatz is at this time besieged by the Troops of Croatia, being about 15000 Men, and 7000 Germans, under the command of General Aversberg; The taking whereof will secure our Frontiers on that side, and give opportunity to our Parties very much to annoy the Enemy. The Emperor's main Army Rendevouses near Baya, and the Troops will be all arrived there by the middle of this month; We do not yet hear of any considerable Motion of the Enemies Forces, and in all appearance their Army will be both weaker and later in the Field this year than it was the last. The Letters from Transilvania give an account, that the Imperial Troops in that Country, had Orders to leave their Quarters, and to encamp about the beginning of this month.

Antegoa,
